June 26, 2023

Dear Friends,

On behalf of St. Louis Center and the men and women with Intellectual Developmental Disabilities (I/DD) who reside there, we want to thank you for participating in the 29th Annual Golf and Glory tournament.

We are pleased to be able to offer our well-established outing format of a shotgun start, comradery throughout, a social dinner following the event, and reintroduction of the Alaskan Cruise raffle winner being drawn. We thank our Planning Committee and all the volunteers that work diligently to make this event a great success year after year. Their commitment in supporting St. Louis Center by continuing the Golf & Glory tradition is simply remarkable.

Because of your generosity with time and money, the Golf & Glory Outing continues to be a major fundraiser for the Center. This event helps offset some of the financial challenges of running the Center, including expenses heightened due to the increase in expenses caused by inflation and the current labor shortage. We want to thank the many individuals and corporate sponsors who are supporting this event.

We are honored to have this first-class event hosted once again at the beautiful University of Michigan Golf Course. Their wonderful staff take care of all the details to assure our sold-out event runs smoothly.

As is customary, we will be honoring members of our community for their longtime support of the Center.

Finally, we give thanks to the many business, sports and Catholic Church leaders who lend their names to our Honorary Committee.

It is an absolute great time of year in Michigan to be able to get outside to celebrate with joy the wonderful gift of life bestowed on all of us from God. Again, thank you, and may God Bless you for your support.

Sincerely,

Fr. Enzo Addari

Special Award Presentation

John Panelli Celebrity Award

Gloria Miller

LaJolla Jewlers: A Saint Louis Center Gem for the past 25 years, Gloria Miller has been a generous supporter of SLC through her donation of custom jewelry pieces for the Dinner/Auction and monetary donations. Most importantly though she has given the most precious gift of her time.

In the early 90's Gloria was visiting SLC with a friend and the visit was "love at first sight". Seeing the wonderful environment, providing assistance to those with special needs right here in her own community, really made an impact on her. Since then, Gloria, her late husband Robert (Bob) Miller, and her son Curtis Gough became an integral part of the SLC fabric. "I have a niece with Down syndrome. She has taught me so much. In her honor I got involved at SLC. Over the years, SLC has become very dear to my heart".

Gloria's contributions to SLC over the past 25 years are many, including her significant work on the Fall dinner auction, participation on the SLC Community Advisory Committee, and in raising money for the benevolent care program of the Center. These are just a few of the contributions that Gloria and her family have been involved with at SLC. The residents, priests and staff of Saint Louis Center are grateful for their efforts and the impact they have made. Gloria is a SLC celebrity, and truly deserving of this year's John Panelli Celebrity Award.

Bill Wagner Pioneer Award

Russ & Kay Payeur

Russell “Russ” and Catherine “Kay” Payeur are longtime friends and generous supporters of Saint Louis Center (SLC). When SLC was the St. Louis School for boys, Russ and Kay attended a dinner at the school. A young student was having a hard time at the dinner, so one of the priests spoke with him and immediately calmed him. That made an impression on the couple, and they have been supporters ever since.

Russ and Kay are happy and kind people who love nature. They were high school sweethearts, who married and raised three children. They live in Saline Michigan, where they attend St. Andrew’s Catholic Church. Russ is an accomplished builder, carpenter and woodworker, as is evident by his many hand built toys displayed at SLC. Kay is an accomplished seamstress, community volunteer and flower gardener who managed the family business finances while raising their children. They enjoyed building a home in the country with a pond and cabin. In the springtime they enjoy viewing a field of white trillium blooms. They have four grandchildren.

When you walk into the atrium at SLC, you will find custom built oak cases. On the shelves are over 60 wooden ‘toy’ vehicles, a collection Russ handcrafted in his workshop. In addition to vehicles, SLC now proudly displays Russ’ collection of eight wooden reindeer pulling a sleigh during the Christmas season.

Once Russ and Kay learned of the legacy campaign, they got financially involved and supported the SLC’s new vision in serving Pw/ DD who are aging. Giving hope to so many families who always question “who will take care of my son/daughter, once I am gone?”

These are a few of the many reasons why we proudly honor Russ and Kay as this year’s recipients of the Bill Wagner Pioneer award for bringing hope to families and SLC into the future.
