

Fr. Enzo Addari Retirement Party Set

A retirement party for Fr. Enzo Addari, former CEO of the St. Louis Center is set for Thursday, April 18 at Andiamo Banquet Center in Warren. Doors open at 6 p.m. with a 7 p.m. dinner

Father Enzo Addari, a dedicated member of the Servants of Charity, has been instrumental in the growth and success of St. Louis Center since 1983. His commitment began in seminary when he chose to work with those with developmental disabilities.

Fr. Enzo was born in Corcumello, Abruzzi, Italy Nov. 17, 1950. He came to the United States shortly after his priestly ordination.

He is a member of the Servants of Charity, a Catholic religious congregation founded by St. Louis Guanella in 1908, which is dedicated to the care of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD), seniors and parishes in low-income areas.

Fr. Enzo came to Michigan in 1993 after finishing his master's degree in Education Administration at Villanova University in Pennsylvania. At the time he was appointed as Assistant Administrator of St. Louis Center.

He was a member of the organizing committee for the Jubilee Day for People with I/DD held on Dec. 3, 2000. He also wrote all of the texts used for the Jubilee Celebration.

Fr. Enzo has been the Chief Executive Officer of St. Louis Center, a residential community for persons with I/DD, since 2008. Under his tenure the Center has moved from an institution to a Village where people with I/DD and people without can live in the same campus, creating an integrated Village. He is also involved with many organizations for any person who needs the reassurance that God loves them.

He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, Alhambra International, chaplain of the Manresa Caravan, a member of several Italian clubs: Italian American Club of Livonia, Italian American Club of Lansing, Federazione Abruzzese del Michigan, and serves as chaplain of the Italian American Cultural Center.

Tickets to the retirement party are $99 per person and include dinner, a cash bar, and live entertainment. Proceeds earned will go to Fr. Enzo. RSVP to Terri Krugel at 586-268-3200 or tkrugel@andiamoitalia.com by April 1.
