ADMINISTRATOR'S WELCOME

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the 29th Annual Guardian Angel Fall Harvest Festival which is held annually here at the Italian American Club of Livonia to support St. Louis Center.

You are an important part of St. Louis Center's ability to serve individuals with I/DD (Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities), especially those who are aging. St. Louis Center has become a place of security for the parents of our residents. This has become so important because of the physical and mental difficulties they are experiencing as they age.

We are grateful for your support of this fundraiser which supports programs of the Center. Through your support, two groups of residents are working daily on their independence skills and being involved in the community.

In everything we do for our residents, we strive to provide each person the 'Fullness of Life'. It is our ongoing commitment to them. St. Louis Guanella, our Founder, said, "We believe, even in humanly critical cases, true love succeeds in finding the path to reach the deepest recesses of people's souls and brings a message of, and encouragement for, good. For this reason, we favor an educational relationship based on and motivated by intelligent love, more than on structure or technical efficiency and methodology" (Basic Document for the Guanellian Mission, No. 142-143).

Most importantly, I want to thank you for your love, prayers, and, of course, your financial support. On behalf of our residents, who always pray for their benefactors, we wish upon all of you the blessings for a 'Fullness of Life'!

Finally, I offer a sincere "THANK YOU" to the organizing committee, which has made this event such a success.

May God bless you all.

MISSION AND HISTORY

Mission St. Louis Center serves individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in an intentional, faith-based community.

History St. Louis Center is a community for persons with intellectual and developmental disabilities, located in Chelsea, MI. Founded by the Archdiocese of Detroit in 1960 as “St. Louis School for Exceptional Boys,” it has been operated by the Servants of Charity Congregation of priests and brothers since its opening.

St. Louis Center has adapted well to the needs of society since its founding, including “mainstreaming” into the public schools during the mid 70s, providing personalized residential care, adding programs for young adults over 18 years of age, and caring for the more physically challenged. A women’s program began in 2001, and SLC achieved national accreditation through the Commission for Accreditation of Rehabilitation Services, (CARF). In 2014, Fr. Guanella Hall was remodeled to provide assisted living services for older adult men and women with I/DD, and we now have a waiting list for services.

Today, there are 53 residents from sixteen Michigan counties and the State of Ohio who call St. Louis Center their home.

The Legacy Campaign continues to move forward, raising funds needed for constructions, operations, and the endowment trust.

Like all of us, the residents of St. Louis Center enjoy learning, growing, and contributing to the community. The Center's Skills-Building Program offers a wide array of opportunities and activities that help ensure that individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities are continuously provided opportunities on- and off-campus that enable them to reach their full human potential while supporting others and building meaningful relationships.

Music therapy, clay workshops, fitness instruction, theater classes, adaptive dance, and gardening are just a few of the activities on-site that bring daily joy. Regular volunteerism with Knights of Columbus, Meals-on-Wheels, Kiwanis, and other organizations provide the community connection we all need to thrive.

Your generosity will help ensure that all of these live-giving activities can continue. Thank you.

Centerpieces

Take home the centerpiece from your table for a donation of $10.

OWN A MASTERPIECE

Resident Art

The St. Louis Center residents have been learning pottery-making skills during weekly workshops. Eli Zemper of Curiouser Clay continues to teach new techniques to the eager residents. A full display of these clay flowers will open December 18th at the University of Michigan Hospital Taubman Center on the first floor. Watch the St. Louis Center website for details.

ST. LOUIS GUANELLA

Gerryanna Luscri

Woman of the Year

From a young age, Gerryanna Luscri has possessed a profound sense of purpose to care for others that she humbly attributes to the example of her parents. This calling, a quiet but undeniable force, led her to a career as a registered nurse—a path that would become her life's work and a testament to her unwavering compassion.

For over three decades, Gerryanna served as a guardian angel in Labor and Delivery, Neonatal and Oncology care. She was not just a nurse; she touched countless lives with a gentle hand and a compassionate heart. Her expertise was a beacon of hope, whether performing life-saving interventions or imparting the knowledge to prepare new parents and those facing challenges with cancer. With distinguished commitment, she attained three advanced certifications and contributed to research and protocol committees that significantly influenced the direction of patient care. In a demanding profession, she was known as "the buffer," a humble title for a true gift—the ability to inform patients and dispel their misconceptions through kindness and education.

Gerryanna's unwavering commitment to others was profoundly demonstrated during her two battles with cancer. While facing the toll of her own diagnoses, she never faltered in her mission to serve. She refused to let her own suffering diminish her professional light, remaining a constant presence of hope for her patients, providing care and comfort even as her own health was challenged. This incredible consistency is a living example of her deep-seated belief that the call to serve transcends earthly trials.

This vocation mirrored her calling to the church. For nearly five decades, she has been a pillar of faith and leadership at St. Gerald Parish in Farmington. There, she has served and continues to serve in many roles—from teaching Catechism and Confirmation classes to acting as Eucharistic Minister, Lector, and choir member, counselor and team member with Youth United. Her service is done with a quiet devotion, never seeking recognition. She recently was asked to take on the Christian Service Coordinator role at the parish. This enables her to work in concert with revered organizations such as the St. Vincent DePaul Society and the Knights of Columbus. Her dedication was acknowledged on two occasions when her family was awarded Family of the Month.

Her most cherished role has always been the one she shares with her beloved husband, Frank Luscri: being parents to their three amazing and faithful children, who have also dedicated their careers to service in nursing, education, and the family's transportation business. Gerryanna has tirelessly supported Frank in his service and endeavors with the Italian American Club of Livonia where he serves as President, and both serve as board members for the Charitable Foundation, an opportunity that has provided deep insight into the mission of the St. Louis Center. Through their shared work, they have not only provided financial support but have also tangibly shared the St. Louis Center's mission, resulting in a dear friend finding a future home there. Believing that true service is rooted in a deep understanding of other's needs, Gerryanna has helped raise their family with this same understanding. By instilling the loving duty to 'pay it forward' in her children, she ensures that her legacy of selflessness and compassion will continue to touch lives for generations to come.

The name Fathom isn't limited to one kind of measurement. Whether it's the depth of the ocean, the distance across generations, the space between what is and what's next, Fathom represents the ability to understand, measure, and move with confidence in every direction. It's the foundation that keeps everything aligned.

Fathom is about dimensional trust. We help clients assess where they stand, where they're going, and how to move forward with clarity. Whether it's financial, emotional, strategic, or legacy-driven, we give shape to the unknown. This direction speaks to clients navigating complexity across time, generations, and scale. They don't just want answers, they want orientation.
