St. Louis Center to Host Annual Trunk or Treat on October 21st

Wednesday, October 21, 2026, 5-7pm.

CHELSEA, MI — St. Louis Center is excited to welcome the community to its 11th annual Trunk or Treat on Wednesday, October 21, beginning at 5:00 PM.

This family-friendly event brings together residents, families, volunteers, and community members for an evening of Halloween fun featuring:

- Trick-or-treating
- Decorated trunks
- Games and activities
- A free community dinner
- Live music
- Free shaved ice
- A costume contest
- A haunted house with both scary and not-so-scary experiences
- A donation-only bake sale

One of the highlights of the evening is the opportunity for community members to celebrate alongside the residents of St. Louis Center. As a residential community serving adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, St. Louis Center works to create a welcoming environment where everyone can enjoy Halloween festivities in a spirit of inclusion, friendship, and fun.

Get Involved

There are many ways to participate:

Volunteers
